REGARD, ESTEEM, HONOR

Honor one another above yourselves.

– Romans 12:10

Respect is regard for the existence, ideas and opinions of other people. To respect others is to treat them with dignity and honor. The word “respect” is from the Latin word respectus, which means to look at, to regard. Regard, or consideration, is a basic form of respect. Esteem is a higher level of respect, and honor is an even higher level of respect.

TRUST

CONFIDENCE IN ANOTHER

Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.

– Proverbs 3:5-6

Trust is firm belief or confidence in the honesty, integrity or reliability of another person or thing. Total trust should only be placed in God; limited levels of trust may be placed in others. Though trust takes time to develop, it's essential for successful relationships.

FORGIVENESS AND RELEASE

Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.

– Colossians 3:13

Pardon is forgiveness of an offense or cancellation of a penalty. It involves excusing someone for what they did or for what they failed to do. Pardon provides the offender with release from penalty; it provides the one granting pardon with release from bitterness. In effect, pardon is “letting go.”

– Colossians 3:13

Pardon is forgiveness of an offense or cancellation of a penalty. It involves excusing someone for what they did or for what they failed to do. Pardon provides the offender with release from penalty; it provides the one granting pardon with release from bitterness. In effect, pardon is “letting go.”

PARDON

FORGIVENESS AND RELEASE

Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you.
