

- Published

- The 12 Seeds Leader Letter – monthly email newsletter
- The 12 Seeds Prayer Letter – monthly email prayer letter

- Reprinted books

- 5000 more copies of the main 128-page book – the 5th printing
- 5000 more copies of the personal Journal Workbook – the 3rd printing

- Provided 12 Seeds books and Journal-Workbooks to a number of ministries, including Crossing Home, Forgiven & Set Free, Good News Jail & Prison Ministry, Maple Grove Bible Church, Metro Hope Ministries, Missionary Evangelism to Corrections, Prison Mission Association, and the R3 Collaborative.

Some ministries use the Personal Journal Workbooks as a stand-alone; others use them as a supplement to the main 12 Seeds book or as a “next step” or as a review for those who have already studied the main (128 page) book.

- Attended Minnesota State Prison Transition Fairs at Shakopee Women’s Prison, St. Cloud Prison, Red Wing Prison and Stillwater Prison. Gave out an average of 150-200 books and workbooks directly to inmates at each prison.

- Attended Federal Prison Transitional Fairs at Rochester Federal Medical Prison and at Waseca Federal Prison. Gave out 100-150 books at each prison.

- Attended the Annual Board meeting of Prison Mission Association (PMA) in Port Orchard, WA. PMA is the largest distributor of 12 Seeds materials. We are considering additional partnership with them in the future.

- Conducted weekly on-site devotional sessions for residents at Metro New Hope Men’s Recovery Center in South Minneapolis.

- Taught monthly on-site classes at Forgiven & Set Free, a recovery ministry support group that meets at Duluth Gospel Tabernacle.

- Actively participated in the R3 Collaborative for Recovery, Reentry and Renewal and volunteered to serve on the steering committee. R3 has approximately 60 member organizations.
