Stanley Correctional Institution is a medium security Wisconsin State men's prison NW of Eau Claire. It has a maximum capacity of 1500 inmates. Chaplain Steve Mohr with Maple Grove Bible Church will be using 12 Seeds books and workbooks to start 12 Seeds classes in the prison with 25-30 inmates per class.

Prison Mission Association (PMA) visited Faribault and Rush City prisons in June. Pastor Dwight Anderson, PMA Executive Director, was at the Annual Transition Fairs in these prisons. He gave out Bibles and also over 150 12 Seeds books and workbooks at each prison. In previous visits he has given out copies of the main (128 page) 12 Seeds book. He writes, "We have had wonderful responses with many saying coordinate better.

- ◆ Resources are used more efficiently.

they have read the book and now are excited to get the workbook."

Tony Kitchens, Field Director for Prison Fellowship in Georgia and North Florida, will be starting a 12 Seeds class this month. He asked if we have a poster that he could use for promoting the class in the prison. Pastor Dwight gave Tony a poster that he developed to promote 12 Seeds classes that he and Norm conducted at Red Wing prison in Minnesota.

Chisago County Jail, Northeast of the Twin Cities, has a weekly 12 Seeds Bible Study led by volunteer Brian Connery. Missionary Evangelism to Corrections provides the books he uses. Brian writes, "I also have been handing out your book and workbook in reentry meetings at the jail. The books are reaching many inmates as some get put on the book cart for general circulation. God's word truly never returns void without accomplishing God's plan!"
